

Misty morning

Saw myself walking down to a river in the surface of the water saw a raven on my head

In a moment I was tangled
I told myself to twinkle
I opened up my eyes saw a nightingale instead

Hey, hey, life is just a learning
I buy another drink and dance the night away

Hey, hey, hey Mr. Bartender keep your eyelids open until the break of day

Hey, Hey, love without a meaning buy myself a whistle and whistle every day

A message was delivered my eyes started to quiver as to get rid of the black raven I tried to shake my head

That misty, dusty morning I tried to get the warning my memory was drawing down on a riverbed

Hey, hey, life is...
