

Rock 'n' Roll in my veins

My hair turns grey
My eyes don't see
I'm wearing glasses
Almost every day
But I still got
Rock 'n' Roll in my veins
But there's still
More joy than pain

I got a woman
She's younger than me
She knows an answer
When I'm too blind to see
But I still got
Rock 'n' Roll in my veins
But there's still
More joy than pain

And I know that time is running
But I keep on strumming
Until the last curtain falls

And I know that I'm getting older
But I told you
There's Rock 'n' Roll in my veins
